★★★★★ ½ Stars

Now with ex-Leeuwin Estate winemaker Bob Cartwright as winemaking consultant, this Margaret River chardonnay continues to offer a stylish new-wave style. The nose has a slightly European feel with earthy, mineral notes on top of juicy nectarine and citrus. Oak is subtle and the palate has attractive texture, intensity and length.

Concentrated grapefruit is the signature of a good Margaret River Chardonnay, and this has heaps of it. It has some restraint and delicacy. A tight wine that promises to unfurl more charms with a touch more bottle-age.
