Nice medium-weight, cool climate style with good berry fruit/cedar oak integration and lots of white pepper. Lovely long, intense, spicy flavours - very Rhone-like.

A stylish, medium-bodied red with aromas of violets, garden mint and red berries. It has an elegance that is all too rare in modern Australian shiraz. It's softly textured, with fine-grained tannins to clean the finish which lingers long. Scores high for drinkability.
